MIDDLEBURG.

Farmers are woefully behind in farm work and there is a general complaint against the weather.

The trustees at Grove have closed the doors of the school-house again, and refuse to allow Sunday School and preaching there.

Miss Maggie Jones, of the Indian Creek section, is wrestling with the chills. Miss Florence Coulter was on the pony list last week, but is better.

Mrs. Eliza Stansbury died at her home near Mt. Olive, after an illness of two weeks, aged 80 years. Her husband predeceased her to the grave two years ago.

Rev. J. Q. Montgomery preached at Turkey Knob Sunday evening. He will probably preach there each 1st Sunday evening throughout the spring and summer.

Col. H. H. McAninch had a fine Norman to drop dead Thursday while hitched to the wagon. Col. McAninch thinks she bursted a blood vessel, as a large quantity of blood was found on post mortem examination.

Shel Thompson, who was whipped within an inch of his life by white caps, has returned to his home, but is settling up his affairs just as fast as he can to leave the county, for good, we hope. Those who have seen him since his return say that his late experience with Judge Lynch has taken all the starch out of him, and that he is not near the bully he used to be.

The Liberty Progress, lately started by W. B. Cockran, is the fourth newspaper venture in this county. It is said to be a very creditably gotten up sheet and it is hoped that it will meet with better success than its predecessors. It, like the others, is independent to start on, but we will wager the best old hen on the place, and risk a racket with the "old woman," that it is preaching republican politics before the leaves come and go.

It was suggested that we have an Old Maid's Convention here, but looking around it was found that we had no old maids to start with, and not wishing to draw on our neighboring towns for material of that kind, we thought it advisable to abandon the project. Our ladies are industrious, intelligent and especially handsome. So much so, that many of them marry too young, and none of them ever reach the age in single blessedness as to be called old maids.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

W. D. Gaddis, 24, and Mrs. Martha A. Gresham, 39, a widow, were married at Moreland yesterday.

Earl Cannon and Miss Ethel Ball were married in Lawrence county, Kansas, last week and in view of the Spanish war will proceed at once to raise Cannon Balls.

Mr. W. C. White and Miss Lizzie Elder, of Parksville, drove up to Stanford Wednesday afternoon and were married at Mr. Cleo Reynolds' by Elder Joseph Ballou. The groom is a brother of John M. White, of this county, and a well-to-do citizen, while his bride is a handsome and intelligent woman and a niece of Mr. Reynolds.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Mr. James Carroll Bailey, son of Judge and Mrs. James P. Bailey, to Miss Clara Welch Lakey, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. G. A. Lakey, which will take place at her home at 8 P. M., April 12. The excellent young couple have been tovers a long time and the happy consummation of their hopes so near at hand, makes them the recipients of many congratulations.

James Miller McCormack, 30, and Miss Mary Tuttle, 22, got license here on the 6th and went to Lancaster to be married. They were accompanied by Mr. E. O. Singleton and Miss Little McCormack and after Eld. George Gowen had made them husband and wife, the party drove to Mr. Ben Bryant's, where an elegant reception was given them. The bride was formerly of Wayne county and is an accomplished young lady and the groom is said to be one of the best young men in the county.

HUBLE.

George Woods went to Paris Monday with a load of stock cattle.

C. C. Gover bought some hogs of J. F. Rigney at 3c. Charley Anderson some of Newell McQuerry at 3c.

Mr. Thomas Wood was in our locality from Maywood, making his many friends glad to see him last week.

William Hubble, aged 84, died at his home here after a brief illness Tuesday at noon, of bilious trouble. He was taken ill Sunday morning, and was perfectly at himself till the last. He leaves a good wife and five children to mourn his loss and a community feeling that his place will be hard to fill.

A United States mail carrier from Alaska brings the news that a pigeon released by Andre, bearing the information that the explorer is well and on land, has been picked up.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. Lucy Gulley, of McCrae, is suffering of a fractured ankle.

Deputy U. S. Collector Thomas Austin has gone to Livingston to start out on a mountain raid.

The Logan Dry Goods Company will have a grand opening during the entire day, next Saturday. New goods will be displayed and music will be furnished by a string band.

Mr. H. A. Marksberry has recently purchased 400,000 pounds of hemp in this county, at $3.75. He has been a great help to the farmers in giving them a better price for their produce than certain combines will offer.

The Christian Endeavor convention for this district, composed of the counties of Lincoln, Boyle, Mercer and Garrard, will meet here April 22, at the Presbyterian church. One hundred and twenty-five delegates are expected.

Judge Barnside has advertised for bids for repairing the roads which were bought by the county. Bids will be received until the 12th day of April. Contracts will be awarded to the lowest bidder, but the right is reserved to reject any bid.

Sam Goodloe was held in a bond of $200 for cutting Matthew Graves, both colored, and Speed Young, colored, in $100 bond for stealing two sides and two hams of meat from Thomas Stevens, near Back Creek. Falling to make bond they were both lodged in jail to await the action of the circuit court.

A great cry of disappointment was raised here on Tuesday morning, when the INTERIOR JOURNAL arrived without my letter. The people were indignant, but, when I explained that I mailed it in good time, and that the postal service failed to deliver on time, the excitement subsided and the world moved on, with an understanding that such an error will not be forgiven again.

Dr. N. Mays will go to Louisville on the 11th to testify in the suits against the life insurance companies for the payment of policies held by the late M. W. Johnson. Dr. J. L. Atkinson, of Campbellsville, has been the guest of his friend, Mr. W. L. Williams, Deputy Sheriff William Ward and H. C. Hamilton took Moses King to the Lexington asylum Sunday, he having been adjudged a lunatic Saturday.

On Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride, Sheriff J. B. Sanders and Miss Sallie Arnold were married by Rev. W. L. Clark. The attendants were Mr. Alexander Walker and Miss Pearl Hill. The wedding march was played by Miss Addie Barnside. The groom is very popular, having been elected sheriff last November and the bride is beautiful and excellent young lady. She is a daughter of Mr. H. C. Arnold, one of the most prominent farmers and traders in the county. I tender hearty congratulations and best wishes.

The subject of war monopolizes every conversation in this vicinity and, with a few exceptions, the opinions expressed are as diverse as those offered on any other subject. I have claimed that there would be no war, as Spain could better afford to surrender Cuba than to go to war with the United States, and for the further reason that McKinley has a string tied to him and a cable attached to a message which recommends nothing, except by implication. The delay so often proposed, may cure Congress of the war fever. While there are two good causes for war, in the name of humanity, yet the rules which govern nations may technically avoid it, and the helpless may continue to suffer to further the interests of the money powers of our nation.

The fiscal court was in session Tuesday and Wednesday. Claims for salaries and ordinary purposes, amounted to $8,197.91, which is much more than last year, on account of the amount paid for leasing turnpikes this time. A levy of 25 cents was made to pay for turnpikes and 25 cents for general purposes, which, added to the State levy of 50 cents, makes a tax on each $100 of $1.02. Mr. Robert Whittaker, highly competent and worthy man, was appointed turnpike supervisor. He is to receive $6 for each mile belonging to the county now and the same amount on the other roads, when purchased and put under his supervision. His compensation will reach about $420 per year, now, and will be about $550 when the other roads are purchased. The court will meet again to-day, Thursday, when it is understood that Squire W. H. Kinnard will be elected county treasurer.

Mr. C. C. Gover bought some hogs of J. F. Rigney at 3c. Charley Anderson some of Newell McQuerry at 3c.

Mr. Thomas Wood was in our locality from Maywood, making his many friends glad to see him last week.

William Hubble, aged 84, died at his home here after a brief illness Tuesday at noon, of bilious trouble. He was taken ill Sunday morning, and was perfectly at himself till the last. He leaves a good wife and five children to mourn his loss and a community feeling that his place will be hard to fill.

COL. FRANK WOLFORD.

ANOTHER STORY OF HIS SINGULAR METHODS.

Some time ago we published a story told us by Col. T. P. Hill of how Col. Wolford cleared a client and prevented blood shed by convincing the magistrates that as the warrant was in the name of the Commonwealth, Col. Adams, who was county attorney, had no right to speak in the case. A man of good standing had in an evil moment struck his wife, and her brothers and most of the neighbors were up in arms about it. The old colonel knew that if Adams spoke and added fuel to the flames, the man would be killed and lie resolved to prevent it. He then made a speech that healed the breach between the husband and wife, brought tears to the eyes of the spectators and at the close, the couple fell on each other's necks and wept tears of reconciliation and renewed love. Col. Hill is full of reminiscences of the old colonial and yesterday gave us this:

Another incident illustrative of Col. Frank Wolford's professional methods occurred in the trial of a woman before a couple of justices in the East end of Casey county, charged with poisoning her husband, who died shortly after eating his dinner, from severe convulsions, followed by convulsions, which proved fatal in a few hours. Col. Adams was county Atty. and the prejudice and excitement was so great against the defendant that W. H. Miller, of Stanford, who was a vigorous prosecutor, was sent for to aid Adams. The trial was held in the open woods because the church near by would not hold the people. When the witnesses had all been examined it was arranged for Miller to make the first speech for the prosecution, Wolford to follow for the defense and Adams close for the Commonwealth.

After Miller had spoken a short while he picked up a law book, having carried a number with him, and opened it, preparatory to using it, when the old colonel asked him what book it was. Miller answered, "Starkey on Evidence." The colonel then objected to its use as law in the case because, as he said, "Mr. Miller well knows that our fathers in the Revolution had fought through seven years of poverty and blood to throw off the despotism and tyranny of British law, which they had done, and no such despotic law was authority before any American court."

After quite a wordy altercation between him and Miller, the justices held a short consultation and announced their determination to hear no British law in that case, and declined to permit Miller to read from Starkey. Mr. Miller then resumed his argument and after about 30 minutes picked up another law book for use, when the old colonel asked what book he had and whose opinion he intended to read in the case. Upon being answered that it was an opinion of Judge Robertson, Col. Wolford said: "Do you want defendant tried by the opinion of a judge who never heard of the case, in any other subject? I have claimed that there would be no war, as Spain could better afford to surrender Cuba than to go to war with the United States, and for the further reason that McKinley has a string tied to him and a cable attached to a message which recommends nothing, except by implication. The delay so often proposed, may cure Congress of the war fever. While there are two good causes for war, in the name of humanity, yet the rules which govern nations may technically avoid it, and the helpless may continue to suffer to further the interests of the money powers of our nation."

IN THE "STATE OF CASEY."

Notwithstanding the rain, wind and bits of snow that fell and the swollen condition of Green River a good crowd gathered at Liberty Monday to be at the opening of court. "Big" court is a big thing in Casey and there must be something exceedingly important at home if most of the sturdy farmers do not get there on the first day. Strange to say the irrepressible patent medicine man was not there and those who wanted physic were compelled to patronize the druggists. Fortunately for him, your humble servant was the only visiting newspaper representative and he acknowledges thanks for a very liberal patronage. For the first time during the dozen or more years I have been attending courts at Casey's capital, there was no political speeches made. What it means I can not say. Not a single horse was exhibited, although it was "show day," and usually a large number is paraded.

The docket for this term is again light and with but one murder case on it; that of Petty for killing Turner, which will not likely be tried this time. Judge Jones' charge to the grand jury was nearly three hours in length and as stated in Tuesday's paper was devoted to a great extent to the illegal sale of whisky. Judge Jones is a man of many words. By the way he is spoken of as a candidate for the republican nomination for appellate judge and he may yet occupy a higher seat on the bench of justice.

The Commercial Bank is still doing a good business and President Combest, Cashier Prewitt and Assistant Cashier Young are naturally very proud of it. The deposits are growing, the loans are good and the stock can hardly be obtained for love or money. It will erect a two-story brick building in the summer and if it is deemed necessary the capital stock will be increased.

The revival of the old Liberty Tribune under the new name of The Casey County Progress gives Casey a sure enough republican paper, as its editor, compositor and job printer are all republicans to the core. The latter is a son of Ham, but is an unusually orderly and pretty intelligent Negro.

Dr. O. H. Roberts is now mine host of the Exchange Hotel and is doing a good business. He has strong competition, though in the Napier House with W. D. Stagg as proprietor. There are few better hotel men than "Banta" and with his splendid wife and Miss Julia to help in the culinary department those who stop at "the old hotel" can bank on getting the best the market affords.

There was a good deal of drunkenness Monday, but where the "fiker" came from is another thing. It is almost as hard to locate a blind tiger while the grand jury is in session as it is to suppress the illegal traffic of the stuff.

It is almost certain that Judge Vincent Boering will carry Casey if Judge Denton, of Somerset, does not enter the Congressional race. Judge Denton has formed a partnership with W. B. Cochran for the practice of law and is in other ways closely identified with the people of this good old county.

The free turnpike question has not struck Casey yet and the people go along paying toll without a murmur. Well posted men told me that if the question were submitted they would not be voted free as a considerable portion of the county has no pikes and the people of those sections would not vote a tax on themselves for the sake of their more fortunate countrymen.

The sheriff's sale for taxes was not a big thing, although hundreds of pieces were advertised. The delinquent came up with their money when they saw the ex-sheriff was determined to have it.

The Old Maid's Convention Monday night proved to be a most pleasing entertainment and by request it was to have been presented again Wednesday night. The prettiest girls of the country took part and although model old maidies before going through the rejuvenating machine, they came out their real selves and a more beautiful lot of lasses could hardly be found. Some of the costumes were very amusing and the "gags" that were gotten off on the young men of the town were both ingenious and fitting. Messrs. George E. Stone, A. P. Young, M. K. Humphrey and Will Stone were the most severely punished and as they are all old enough to have been married a score of years, little sympathy was felt for them. Between acts Prof. Caldwell, who managed the entertainment, gave some recitations and impersonations which were well received and loudly applauded. The program wound up with two beautiful tableaux, "courting" and "wedding," in which all of the old maidies in the room were rejuvenated from time to time.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - APRIL 8, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

We are authorized to announce

HON. JAS. B. McCREARY

of Madison County, a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

CONTRARY to expectations McKinley's message that was to ring around the world and cause the Spanish to hunt their holes was not delivered to Congress Wednesday as had been promised, for the reason, it is said, that Consul Fitzhugh Lee asked that it be withheld to save lives in Havana and give the Americans a chance to get out of Cuba. There is a slight probability that Spain will yet yield and it is said that McKinley's plan is to make a show of naval force to secure an armistice. It is also said that Spain may call the bluff. And there you are. The war spirit in Congress is growing all the time and great disappointment was expressed when the president's message was not forthcoming Wednesday. The whole country is ripe for intervention and for holding Spain to the strictest accountability for the lives of the 264 seamen lost in the Maine explosion.

It is said that the president's message, which was delayed, recommends intervention but does not urge the recognition of Cuban independence, mainly for the reason that the insurgents have no settled government. There are two factions among the republicans in Congress, one agreeing with the president and the other and apparently the stronger, favoring the Foraker resolution for independence of Cuba and armed intervention. It is doubtful whether the Senate will direct the president to resort to force immediately, but whether by force or peaceably it will demand that Spain leave Cuba without unreasonable delay.

Even the republicans over the country are growing restive under McKinley's apparently inexorable delay and Congressmen assert that they will not be held down longer, notwithstanding Reed has drawn the lines taut. At Louisville a republican club passed resolutions repudiating McKinley as an American and a republican, and declared him a Benedict Arnold. It is claimed that McKinley is entirely under control of Hanna and Wall Street and can make no move until they tell him. These worthies had better learn once and for all and quickly that the country is tired of diplomatic tomfoolery and anything that falls short of the freedom of Cuba will not be tolerated. The country is as much aroused as was in '61 and is determined that Spanish atrocities and Spanish sovereignty shall be banished from this hemisphere.

WE have been waiting anxiously, and we may say with bated breath, to hear from George Davison on the war situation. The ominous silence with which that fierce warrior had seemed to envelop himself filled us with dismay and we feared that he had joined the peace at any price party. Colson, of Yellow Creek, had issued ultimatums, and our own Berry and other lesser lights had had themselves interviewed early and often, to say that they were for war to the knife and the knife to the hilt in the vitals of the treacherous and cowardly Dons. But at last George has spoken and he says with the air and spirit of man who means what he asserts that Cuba must be free. That settles it—settles our fears and settles the fate of the Spanish. Cuba will be free for George himself hath said it and he is a fighter from Fighting Creek, whose daily beverage is two buckets of gore. Bully for our man! We knew he would come to time, even if he was long about it.

THE nomination of Maj. Crumbaugh, of Hopkinsville, to be inspector of steamboats on the Ohio, has at last been confirmed by the Senate. The Majah ought now to throw up the job with scorn and demand that he be made an inspector of warships and torpedo boats.

SPAIN PLAYING FOR TIME.
BUT NEGOTIATIONS SEEM TO BE OVER.

WAR CERTAIN UNLESS SHE BACKS DOWN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7, 4 P.M.—What is supposed to be Spain's last card was played to-day when diplomatic representatives of England, Germany, France, Italy, Austria and Russia urged McKinley to be moderate and settle controversy without war. The president made a non-committal answer.

News from Madrid says Spain will not back down by granting Cuban independence. Assistant Secretary Day says Lee will leave Havana Saturday. Guards trebled about U. S. legation at Madrid. Woodford's family has left.

Republicans organizing to overrule Reed Monday if message does not come then.

It is believed that all diplomatic negotiations are at an end and that McKinley is only waiting till Americans get out of Cuba, to make naval demonstrations against Havana, and that the Maine affair remains to be settled.

Sixty-five per cent. of the inhabitants of Cuba are white people, the rest are colored.

The cruiser Cincinnati got aground at Key West while practising, but was pulled off by the government tugs. Gen. Lee telegraphed the State department that in case of war he will not be able to get the American citizens out of Cuba before Sunday.

The Ohio Senate has passed the bill appropriating $1,000,000 to put the Ohio National guard on a war footing. There was not a dissenting vote.

The administration is said to have planned a naval demonstration at Havana and Porto Rico for the purpose of convincing Spain that this country is in earnest.

The United States consulate at Barcelona is guarded by police and the United States consul and vice-consul at Cartagena, who are both said to be Spaniards, have resigned.

April has long been regarded as the "way month." The Revolution began April 19, 1775; the Black Hawk, April 21, 1831; the Mexican, April 24, 1846, and the Civil, April 12, 1861.

Representative Grout, of Vermont, after a White House conference, introduced a joint resolution recognizing the independence of Cuba and appropriating $500,000 to feed the Cubans.

H. C. Robins, counsel for the Cuban junta, made a statement declaring that the insurgents would resist intervention as proposed by the president unless it be preceded by recognition of Cuban independence.

Admiral Irwin, before the House foreign affairs committee, said it was impossible that the mine which destroyed the Maine could have been exploded without the knowledge of the Spanish authorities.

Proof has been secured in London by United States authorities that Spain had a number of submarine mines manufactured in England and that some of these mines were placed in the Havana harbor long before the Maine accident.

These messages are said to have passed between the Pope and McKinley: "As the head of the religion of fraternity I will solicit Spain to grant an armistice in the name of humanity. I pray you, pending the result of this step, to desist from all extreme measures." President McKinley's reply is given as follows: "At least out of respect for Your Holiness we will wait, wishing success to your endeavor."

POLITICAL POINTS.

The State treasurer has called for $10,000 more of old interest-bearing warrants, to be paid off April 25.

Complete returns show the Kansas City republican ticket headed by Mayor James M. Jones to have been elected by an average majority of 1,500.

A New York man recently went to an undertaker's, chose a coffin, bargained for its lowest price, purchased it, then returned home and committed suicide.

In the Chicago city elections the democrats were generally successful, electing four out of the six town tickets and returning a democratic majority to the council.

Mr. Clarence S. Bate, chairman of the populist State central committee and head of one of the oldest Jefferson county families, died at Louisville from the effects of an operation performed for a kidney trouble.

OHIO always goes democratic when it makes little difference to the country generally whether she does or not. Nearly all of the principal towns elected democratic officials Monday and in Cincinnati the democratic candidate for supreme judge defeated the republican by 1,682 majority.

A YOUNG lady sends us the first copy of the Ghent Herald with this question: "Will wonders never cease?" We should think not when a paper can bloom out in a town as small as Crab Orchard.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

The snow extended as far as Texas, where considerable fell.

There are 144 saloons in Fayette county, nearly all of them in Lexington.

Sam Fogie, an old deaf Negro, was run over and killed by a train at Lebanon.

At Paducah 33 saloon keepers pleaded guilty to selling whisky on Sunday and were fined $10 each.

The Homeopathic College at Louisville graduated 13 doctors this week, four of whom are women.

When his wife refused to live longer with him, Karl Baerher, of Cincinnati, shot her and then killed himself.

William Mercer, who had murdered his daughter, was shot to pieces by a posse of citizens of Cleburne county, Ark.

Judge Emmett Field decided that the new school census act, applying to Louisville, and bitterly opposed there, is unconstitutional.

At Waco, Tex., Bob Leonard and a man named Simpson fought over the Brann-Davis tragedy and the latter is not expected to live.

Inspector Lester, candidate for judge of the third district, will bring suit to test the constitutionality of the appellate gerrymander law.

Mrs. Margaret E. O'Brien Davis, one of the most successful women writers that Alabama has ever produced, died in Birmingham as the result of an operation.

At Mine Lick Station, Tenn., Giles Bradford attempted to separate Clay Bros. and William Bradford, who were fighting, when he was struck with brass knuckles and killed.

It is reported that Alfred Dreysus, the former captain of artillery, who was sentenced to imprisonment for life, for betraying important artillery secrets to a foreign power, is dead. He was undergoing imprisonment on Devil's Island, off the coast of French Guiana.

"Near Little Rock, Ark., there is a place called Happy Hollow. One day Happy Hollow enjoyed a big fight. One man was killed and left lying on the ground. The coroner's jury was summoned and held an inquest. On investigation it was found that the dead man had $51 and a pistol in his pocket. After some deliberation the jury fined the corpse $50 for carrying concealed weapons and buried the remains in the paper graveyard."

A short item in our last told of the awful disaster at Shawneetown, Ill., by the breaking of the levee. Not one of the bodies of the 28 persons known to have lost their lives has been recovered. The total dead will not be over 50. The property loss is estimated at $300,000. The town is a week. Mayor Carney believes the levee will not be rebuilt as the people will not trust it, and that the town will be depopulated. The welfare is well in hand and the survivors are being well cared for.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

Wyatt Hughes, of Pauline, and Miss Jane Hogue, of near Alton Springs, died a few days ago.

An order has been made by County Judge Sullivan, calling for a local option election in Richmond, June 11.

Lewis Sears, Bryant's Store, Knox county, and J. L. Wilder, Coolidge, Putnam county, have been appointed postmasters.

In a fight at Pittsburg James Allison was shot and seriously wounded and Charles Anderson, a coal operator, was badly injured.

Another unloaded gun has gone off at Middlesboro with serious results. Dan Gilbert was shot and Wm. Parker was handling the gun.

A dispute says that Jasper Pearl fatally stabbed William Welch at London. The former is one of the leading republicans of Laurel county.

In a fight at Richmond, Brutus Winkles struck Abner Long, of Cottonburg, with a rock, knocking out an eye and crushing his cheek bone. Long is now at the infirmary and Winkles is in jail.

Among the delegates to the International Mining Congress to be held at Salt Lake, Utah, July 6-8, appointed by Gov. Bradley, are W. R. Dillon, Livingston; A. Gatliffe, Knox county; Joe C. Parker, Pulaski; Charles S. Nield, Grays; S. V. Rowland, Pittsburgh.

HONEST DICK.—In passing upon a claim in favor of Judge R. G. Williams, of Rockcastle, Inspector Lester says: "If the claimant in the case had resorted to the methods of a great number of other like officers in the State to increase his fees in examining court cases he could have made that claim twice or three times as great as it is. He is to be commended for his honesty and economy in the discharge of his duty. Let his claim be paid in full."

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says that Dr. George Perkins, of Somerset, is a patient of Christ's Hospital, Mt. Auburn, and while under treatment was stricken with paralysis of the limbs. Dr. Perkins, the leading practitioner of his community, has been the physician of the Q. & C. on the Somerset division for a quarter of a century, and hundreds of employes whom he has successfully treated, will be glad to know that his affliction is regarded as only temporary, with chances for his complete recovery. He is a cousin of the Lynns of this county.

THE ENJOYMENT OF ART.

isn't necessarily an expensive luxury, unless you surround yourself with costly paintings or statuary. You can revel in artistic beauty on your walls and ceilings by covering them with such exquisite designs, tints and colors, in all the latest styles in wall papers, from our superior Spring stock.

CHURCH CHATTER.

There are 35 young preachers at Georgetown College, one Methodist, one Presbyterian and 33 Baptists.—Times.

In Africa 438 languages and 153 dialects are found; into only about 70 of these has any portion of the Bible been translated.

Rev. G. H. Turner wires Mr. W. H. Higgins that Rev. J. H. King, of Lebanon, Tenn., will not preach at Walnut Flat, Sunday, as he had intended.

Music lovers will not forget the song service to be held at the Christian church tonight by Prof. S. S. Myers, who is peculiarly gifted as a musician.

Rev. Dunmen, of Tacoma, Washington, preached at the Christian church Wednesday night in the interest of home missions. He will preach at McCormick's Tuesday night.

At Howling Green, Ed Lewis, a professed sanctificationist, is on trial upon a charge of forgery. It is claimed by friends that his mind is unbalanced.

There are one or two more indictments pending against him.

At Bow, Tenn., Bob Leonard and a man named Simpson fought over the Brann-Davis tragedy and the latter is not expected to live.

Inspector Lester, candidate for judge of the third district, will bring suit to test the constitutionality of the appellate gerrymander law.

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

THE best physician can't cure you if you do not follow his directions. Get the best medicines too. That is the only kind we furnish. Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

MISS MATTIE PAXTON went to Lexington yesterday.

MU. W. H. HIGGINS went to Lexington Wednesday afternoon.

MU. AND MRS. JOSH DAVIS, of Muncie, guests of Mrs. John P. Davis.

MU. R. B. CHAPIN, of Manchester, is here. He is practicing law there and doing finely.

MU. AND MRS. WILLIAM RICE have moved to rooms in the old Commercial Hotel building.

A LITTLE daughter was born to Mrs. Jesse C. Lynn Tuesday, but it lived only a few hours.

W. W. WITHERS went up to Lexington yesterday to advertise his store and sell a few goods.

MU. B. CHAPIN caught a white mouse at his house yesterday and sent it to us as a curiosity.

MU. E. B. RICHIE is back from Texarkana and has decided to locate there for the practice of his profession.

MU. E. O. SINGLETON, the Turnerville merchant, is back from the cities where he bought dead loads of goods.

CAPT. W. H. KIRBY, of the K. C., who lived here for several years, has moved his family from Maysville to Lexington.

MU. N.Y. STEWART, JR., one of the editors of the new London Keptuckian, is here and reports that his paper is prospering.

SUPT. J. I. MCKINNEY, of the L. & N. at Montgomery, came up to see his father yesterday, who remains in a critical condition.

DR. T. J. BOYD, of Kidd's Store, brought Miss Mary Mayes, of Springfield, to Mr. J. H. McAlister's, where she will spend a few days.

MU. E. W. SMITH, the well-known civil engineer, left yesterday for Norfolk, Va., where he will take charge of the sewerage engineering.

AMONG the 50 graduates in dentistry at the Ohio College at Cincinnati, was William M. Myers, of Crab Orchard. A young lady also graduated.

MU. S. H. MARTIN and pretty daughter, Miss Berda, came down from Rockcastle to hear Gen. Gordon's lecture and were guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown.

MU. J. D. PAGE, of Bowling Green, representing the Providence Savings Life Insurance Co., of New York, is here inducing our people to insure. He claims to offer a plan that will interest the most dubious.

LUTCHER DOWSEY, Esq., telephoned from Lancaster for reserved seats yesterday. An entertainment here without the popular young lawyer would about be like the play of Hamlet, with the principal character omitted.

H. G. COOK, the Jewel jeweler, has joined his wife at Mrs. A. B. McKinney's. He says that there is little or no small-pox in his town now and never has been except among the lower class of Negroes and a white man or two that run with them.

COL. ISAAC SHELBY, of Shelby City, was at the Palace yesterday, returning home from Chicago. He thinks that the government should issue $500,000 greenbacks instead of bonds for war emergencies and that the gold in the treasury would warrant such an issue. Cincinnati Enquirer.

GEN. JOHN B. GORDON, one of the best prominent survivors of the great conflict, arrived in town yesterday to tell our people last night "About the First Days of the Confederacy," with which his name is so indelibly linked. A delegation of Confederate soldiers met him at Junction City and entertained him at the St. Asaph last night. The four years that have elapsed since he was here have made but very little change in his appearance and all are glad to see the grand old man looking so well.

SEE our line of Easter Kid Gloves. White, Black, Green, Made, Tan, Hethotrope and Oxblood, at $1 and $1.50. Severance & Sons.

Pretty indeed is Mrs. A. A. McKinney's display of Easter hats, but when the snow was coming down Tuesday like it does at the north pole, they had a strangely incongruous look.

SPeaking Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, will address the people of Lincoln at the court-house next Monday at 1:30 o'clock in behalf of his candidacy for Congress.

HEAD.—After lingering two months, ex-Jailor C. L. King, of Mt. Vernon, died from the effects of wounds at the hands of the Langfords. Pete Langford was jailed, but Eliza Langford was not found.

A LOCAL option election will be held in Hazard May 10th and it will probably, says the Saylings, be the first election under the new law and the officers of this election will be appointed by the county commissioners whenever they may be.

The guards were removed from the Danville gate on the Stanford pike Tuesday and toll is being collected without the aid of guns. Mr. J. S. Bossley tells us that the county of Boyle condemned the road at $800 a mile and then didn't take it. The price of the pact in this county was paid for at $900 a mile.

WILL BUILD.—Master of Trains B. N. Roller and Engineer J. R. Orndorf have each contracted with W. R. Dilution for a residence at Livingston. They will be built after the order of Mr. S. P. Stagg's cottages on Logan avenue, except that Mr. Orndorf's will be considerably larger.

A FEW nights ago while Dr. Steele Bailey was attending Mrs. J. S. Hockler, some one left an old horse with an old army saddle on, the place where he had left his. Next day the doctor's horse was found at Mrs. Charles Patterson's. The old horse belonged to a Negro man in town and some scoundrel had taken him with the intention of riding him home, till he found the doctor's a better and a speedier one. Both animals were returned to their owners.

WHITE.—The Louisville Times printed a rather poor picture of Capt. White, who used to sling type in this office, with this comment: Capt. Frank J. White, of Lancaster, is 75 years of age, and a Mexican war veteran who has not allowed his age to deprive him of his love of martial glory. He says he is willing and anxious to lead a company to Cuba and fight for her independence. He is perhaps the oldest journeyman printer in Kentucky, and probably the best.

BAB.—This item, which is taken from the Columbia News, will cause regret among the legion of friends of the young man: "Joshua Stone, who was reared near Liberty, and who some years ago was a student in C. C. college, this plague, has gotten himself into trouble. For the last 11 years he has been a clerk in the office of the auditor for the postoffice department at Washington. He was arrested in that city a few days ago charged with altering a money order, defrauding the government out of $100. He was held in $1,000." We hope he will be able to prove his innocence.

THE Young Ladies' Home Mission Society of the Methodist church, will hold their regular "Easter Open Session" next Sunday at 3 p. m. Everybody invited. The program is as follows: Organ Voluntary; Opening Chorus, Ring Ye Easter Bells; Prayer; Hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign"; Responsive Reading; Song, Hall to the Risen Jesus; Recitation, All Hall; Song, He Is Risen; Recitation, Spring Is Here; Duet, Soprano and Alto; Responsive Reading; Song, If Ye Then Be My; Essay, The Risen King; Duet, At; Tenor; Exercise, What Say the Lilies? Baritone Solo, Quartet Refrain; Address, By Pastor; Solo, With Chorus; Exercise, Easter Gifts; Closing, Chorus.

COME and select you a spring carpet from our stock or sample line. We deliver it ready to put on the floor. Sev- erance & Sons.

ED is the name of a new postoffice in Casey county and L. M. Faircloth has been appointed postmaster. It may be named for our business manager and then again it may not.

THE first game of the Louisville Base Ball Club will be played with the Pittsburgh club at the Louisville League Park, April 15, at 3:30. Manager Harry C. Pulliam has our thanks for complimentary.

SOME hungry scoundrel got into C. V. Gentry's smoke-house Tuesday night and stole four of his best old hams and three shoulders. He heard his dog bark furiously, but it was too cold a night for him to leave his bed to see what the trouble was.

TAXES will eat us out finally. The county levy is fixed at 50 cents, the town at 75 cents and the State at $24, and with an extra 25 cents for school district purposes will make Stanford people pay over $2 on the hundred, which is considerable more than they want to stand.

A VERY great many people who have thought over the matter do not think that the pikes of the county should be placed in charge of a man, but each given charge of to one man who understands keeping them up at the lowest figure. We do not take at all to the council-supper idea, because it is vastly more expensive, but if the court is wedded to it we hope it will exercise the greatest discrimination in its selection. He should be a practical turnpike man of good business qualifications and undoubted integrity. It may be hard to find such a combination, but when such power is reposed in one man the very best should be selected.

EASTER SUNDAY. To some, the most attractive service of the day, will be that of the children of the Mt. Zion Band at the Christian church beginning promptly at 7 p. m. This band of little workers have for their object the building of homes in India for the heathen children, where they are fed, clothed and educated for missionaries to their own people. An offering will be part of the program and they hope their cause will appeal to the generosity as well as the heart of every one present and each will respond with a thank offering on this Easter day. The church choir in full will render their most valuable assistance, hence the assurance that the program will be both pleasing and instructive.

HUBLE.—After a short illness, which began with an attack of colic, Mr. Wm. Huble passed to the beyond at 2 p. m. Tuesday, aged 81 years. He was a native of Palaski, but came to this county a quarter of a century or more ago, after marrying a Miss Hud- son, who survives him, as does five children—Spencer, L. F., R. L. and Lorenzo Huble and Mrs. M. B. Embanks, all highly honorable and excellent citizens. The deceased was a member of the Christian church and a man of honesty, integrity and usefulness. His days were much beyond the allotted span of life, but he retained his vigor to a remarkable degree and was as active as many men 20 years his junior. After a funeral sermon by Eld. George Gowen, at the Hobble church, a long cortage followed the remains to their resting place in the Lancaster Cemetery.

FINED—Dave Peyton and E. Hoge, of Moreland, were tried yesterday before Squire Coffey at McKinney for disorderly conduct and were fined $10 each. Peyton paid his fine but Hoge will work it out in jail.

REMARKABLE.—The Cæzarium operation was performed by a train on a ewe belonging to E. P. Woods Tuesday. It cut her wide open without injuring the little lamb, which is still alive and growing.

LOOK OUT!—In order to renew the smoke stack, the Water Works will have to shut down 10 or 12 hours on Sunday, April 10th. So look out for your boilers and water supply. J. W. Hayden, manager.

FINED—Dave Peyton and E. Hoge, of Moreland, were tried yesterday before Squire Coffey at McKinney for disorderly conduct and were fined $10 each. Peyton paid his fine but Hoge will work it out in jail.

MR. A. C. SINE has received one of his patent quick change cash drawers, which is not only a wonderful money box, but a pretty piece of furniture. It will retail at $25 and it looks like the inventor has a good thing in it.

THE Centre College catalogue, now in the hands of the Advocate Job Department, shows that there will be 30 graduates in the senior class of '98 in the Academic Department. In the law class there are 33. John C. Robinson, of this country, is among the number.

WHISKY SELLER ARRESTED.—Deputy U. S. Marshal George Thompson took to Mt. Vernon for trial yesterday James Macne, who was arrested here by Marshal O. J. Newland, on a telegram. Macne is charged with selling whisky in Laurel. He was met here by a woman, Mrs. Sam, and she was also arrested, but there was nothing against her and she was released.

SPEAKING of the attempt that will be made to get a change of service on the K. C. the Richmond Climax says: "If the concerted action of Richmond, Stanford and Lancaster to induce the officials to run a morning train from Richmond shall prove efficacious, there will be rejoicing all along the line." The visit of the committee to General Manager Metcalfe, at Louisville, was postponed on a telegram from him that he would be forced to be out of the city.

THE rain of Monday turned that night into a snow and Tuesday morning saw the heaviest fall of the winter covering the ground. It was two or three inches deep and as the mercury went down 10 degrees below freezing, it is safe to say that most of the peaches and other early blooming fruits are as dead as a door nail. The snow is nearly all gone now and yesterday was bright and cloudless, though chilly. The prediction was "fair and warmer Friday." There have been six or eight frosts since the warm spell in March, when the people got it into their heads that the winter was over.

BRODHEAD'S BOOM. THE LITTLE TOWN PUTTING ON CITY AIRS.

BRODHEAD, April 6.—A thorough invoice of the town equals a lively improvement in three years past. Commencing with the 30 years standing general store of T. S. Frith, then comes J. H. Albright, who at a five-year juncture place, controls at the closest meaning "A Merchant's Medley." From one line to many and an average of one change per 25 years leaves things somewhat huddled, though Mr. A. is an up-to-date business man—having made his change with the season and style. It is there we find J. C. Watson, an apprentice salesman and all-around department man, compounding prescriptions on one side, bundling domestics on the other and in the extreme South end of the building adorns a stool in capacity as general manager for the Bower Gate Latch Co., with flattering prospects to success. A car load has been received and Kentucky's fields are full of solleitors, returning profits already from 64 counties.

Through a point of justice and disregarding ridicule, the article is doing its own work while the representatives are far in the rear. At this juncture, J. G. Frith joins the chase and after doing a 15 years business single-handed, J. Harve Dunn, of Danville, made it Frith & Dunn and with his persevering business ideas brings the race considerably in their favor. This week their 50 feet addition will be completed, after which a $2,000 clothing bill, with a thousand or more dollars in other goods, will lead this place for extensive business.

R. S. Martin, now Martin-Protheroe & Co., employs four clerks including the late Prof. C. A. Chandlee, who for three years in our college as principal, gained his title and gilt-edged reputation, takes the road for these people with a line of tobacco and flour of the firm's own manufacture.

J. Thomas Cherry is well recognized throughout the country as a fair-square dealer. Tom holds the cash register under his thumb, while H. L. Tharp, late of Richmond, handles the scoop and Miss Bertie Hilton strives to pacify the ladies' curiosity in the millinery department, which position all men would consider the chief. A. E. Albright, in 14x16 building, does a 40x6 business, followed closely by J. H. Hilton, at the old Woolard stand.

Dr. J. M. Clark, with residence, office and a full line of drugs under one roof, is getting along contrary to the present administration, and has a "Klondike" trade. W. H. Collyer & Co. gives employment to three engravers in Marble Works and as a side issue fancy candles, &c., in a partition of same. Uncle Albert Butner established a blacksmith shop at the same time that T. S. Frith was learning to manipulate the scales and every day the forge is aglow, notwithstanding there are three more in lively operation nearby, but bluffs don't go.

In these progressive three years two more churches have been erected, so now instead of one on Sunday morning at 9, a trio-tolling is a summons for the children of God.

At 6 A. M., Jerry Frith pulls the whistle of two saw mills, which signifies nothing less than a dollar-a-day for at least 50 citizens. He also holds the papers to furnish the L. & N. with all repaving and building material, such as tels, locust posts, bridge timbers, &c., on the Knoxville Division with an occasional order on the Main Line. R. P. Pike and T. K. Francisco uses the lash on a span of miles as haekmen on the Crab Orchard line and other country towns.

As yet the voice of the Fair Company is quite unheard, but with Ed Albright as secretary will work up a long list of good premiums. J. W. Moore, an energetic farmer, who has sold four car loads of fertilizers, 500 bushels seed oats and a great many bushels of other seeds, will, it is thought, organize a Board of Trade, Commerce Exchange or something of that kind, if time duplicates us these three years.

W. W. O.

He called her up at early morn by telephone, and to her ear These loving, tender words were borne: "Is that you Maude, lovely dear?" With shriek of terror, loud and shrill. She cried while trembling like a leaf:

"Oh, Fred, please turn your back until I get my clothes and put them on!"

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elizabethtown, Ky., for twelve years, has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale Craig & Hocker, Dongola.
